19                  THIS MATTER, having come on regularly before the undersigned Judge on the parties'
20                  Stipulated Motion to Take Perpetuation Deposition of Ill Plaintiff to Preserve Testimony for 21                  Trial, the Court having reviewed and considered that motion and all evidence presented, and 22                  being otherwise fully advised in the premises, now, therefore, it is hereby

23                  ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Motion to take the perpetuation
24                  deposition of plaintiff Jeffrey Ford is GRANTED; and it is further

25                  ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff Jeffrey Ford shall be made 26                  available for a deposition, at the location of his then-current residence. Due to his illness, his 27                  deposition may be broken up over the course of multiple days, and deposition session(s) may 28                  be continued, as necessary, due to health limitations. Mr. Ford's deposition may be videotaped.
29                  His deposition testimony may be offered at trial in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 32 and 30                  LCR 32.
